NICHOLAS YORGASON , DPT, Bsc Ex Sci, SMFA 1&2, FDN 1, ACC 1

Meet Nicholas Yorgason our Golf Fitness Coach. Nicholas holds his Bachelors of Science in Exercise Science from the University of Lethbridge (2012). As well as a Doctor of Physiotherapy from the University of Melbourne (2017).

Nicholas Loves working with all golf athletes, however junior golfers are his true passion and special interest. Over the last 2 years he has assisted junior golfers with their injuries and performance concerns, specifically working with Darcy Dhillon and assisting him with his high performance junior golf program. Nicholas' love for combining his sports science background, with his physiotherapy skill set is how he believes he creates an extremely unique service for junior golfers.

Nicholas cannot be more proud of the junior golfers he has worked with and their accomplishments. It is in their success that he finds fulfillment in his work. Several of the golfers he has worked alongside Darcy have gone on to be selected for Alberta Junior Golf High Performance program, and some have gone on to pursue NCAA opportunities.

Nicholas has completed several additional trainings in Selective Functional Movement Screens Level 1 and 2, Functional Dry Needling Level 1 and Acupuncture Canada Certification Level 1. He is also currently working on his TPI Level 1 and Medic Level 2 Designations.

In his spare time you can find Nicholas on the golf course. When he's not on the course he can be found partaking in some sort of adventure with his significant other Chelsey and their dog Samson.

THE COACHES

CHRIS MELBOURE, COACH PANDA, MASTER CLUB FITTER

Chris is entering his 26th season in the golf industry with a robust passion for club building, club fitting, and teaching. Central Alberta has provided him with numerous opportunities to broaden and enhance his knowledge in the golf industry. As a lifelong golfer and an advocate of the game, Chris's enthusiasm for teaching continues to flourish. He is consistently eager to share new methods, drills, and techniques with golfers at all skill levels.

Since 2002, Chris has been coaching junior golf, starting with overseeing the Junior Program at Lacombe Golf & Country Club. He subsequently took on the Gull Lake Junior Foundation program for six seasons, managing over 80 participants each year. Over the years, Chris has achieved the status of a Master fitter with all major brands and actively participated in numerous fitting seminars and training sessions. He is committed to constant improvement and strives to learn all facets of golf through coaching and club fitting.

In 2023, Chris proudly joined the Advisory Team of the Cobra/Puma brand, allowing him to enhance his technical skills across all aspects of club fitting while collaborating with engineers, marketing professionals, and colleagues from across North America. Coach Panda is the master when it comes to club fitting with a serious passion for improving golfers' abilities.

CALDER SUTTON, COACH SUTTS, PGA OF CANADA PROFESSIONAL

Calder Sutton brings a wealth of experience and passion to the world of golf. Growing up, he spent his summers in a competitive junior program, where he honed his skills and developed a deep love for the game.

A firm believer that golf should be fun first- he looks forward to growing the game, and introducing it to a wide range of players.

Beyond the fairways, Calder is known for his sportsmanship, integrity, and leadership, qualities he instills in the next generation of golfers.

KIRK EVANS, COACH K, PGA OF CANADA CLASS A

As a Class "A" Professional certified by the PGA of Canada, Kirk brings a decade of expertise to golf instruction. Kirk's teaching approach involves constructing the golf swing from the ground up, emphasizing balance and athleticism. Kirk fosters a positive, enjoyable, and friendly learning atmosphere, aiming to improve students' capacity to embrace new techniques and consistently execute well-struck golf shots. Witnessing students set and achieve personal goals in golf brings Kirk immense satisfaction, as he takes joy in sharing the excitement associated with progress and improved performance on the golf course.
